

|                   |                      |
|-------------------|----------------------|
| 1st.              | Back                 |
| Jessie Anderson   | James Cippera        |
| Elmer Brant       | Wendell Stoner       |
| L. L. Lentz       | Purd Sentman         |
| Jesse Musgrave    | Lou Langhurst        |
| Logan Myers       | Dale Anderson        |
| Mart Stoner       | Jesse Myers          |
| Daw Overholt      | Joe Alt              |
| Byron Cogan       | Clarence Brant       |
| Lloyd Myers, baby |                      |
| George Young.     | "Womanless wedding." |
| Middle            | 3-16+17-26.          |
| Edward Myers      | North Liberty Band   |
| Irene Cogan       |                      |
| Lowell Myers      |                      |
| Howard Wray       |                      |
| Lou Kadlec        |                      |
| Robert Lininger   |                      |
| Charles Pensland  |                      |
| Levies Myers      |                      |
| Jesse Green       |                      |
| Bob Price         |                      |
| Willard Horn      |                      |
| Grant Horn.       |                      |

"Womanless Wedding"

presented by the North Liberty Band
1926

Back Row, left to right:

Jim Cippera, Wendyll Stoner, Purl Sentman, Lou Langhurst, Dale Anderson,
Ike Meyers, Joe Alt, Clarence Brant, Jessie Lininger, stagehand

Middle Row:

Edward Myers, Irene Coglan, Lowell Meyers, Howard Wray, Lew Kadlec, Robert Lininger,
Pete Reasland, Lewis Meyers, Jess Green, Bob Price, Willard Horn, Grant Horn,
George Young

First Row:

Jessie Anderson, Elmer Brant, Lew Lentz, Jess Musgrave, Logan Myers, Mart Stoner,
Dan Overholt, Byron Coglan, Lloyd Myers

BAND GIVES LAUGH PLAY

"The Womanless Wedding," Presented at North Liberty, Real Hit

MADISON, Twp. March 22 —
Members of the North Liberty band presented a play entitled "The Womanless Wedding" to a full house on the evenings of March 16th and 17th, at North Liberty. The proceeds were for the benefit of the band. Two lady members of the band presented "Miss 1880 Meets the Flapper." The following cast presented the wedding:
Groom, Van Dyke Doolittle.....
..... Logan Myers
Bride, Tiny Violet Small.....

..... Mart Stoner
Her father ..... Robert Price
Her mother ..... Dan Overholt
Her twin sister and brother.. Edward Myers and George Young
Her baby sister..... Lloyd Myers
Grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas Small .....
..... L. L. Lentz and Jesse Musgrave
Uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Howdy ..... Purl Sentman and Wendell Stoner
Train bearer..... Willard Horn
Groomsmen .....
..... Lou Langhurst and Grant Horn
Bridesmaids .....
..... Mr. Kadlec and Joe Alt
Best man ..... Robert Lininger
Flower girl .... Charles Reasland
Ring bearer ..... Elmer Brant
Minister ..... Dale Anderson
Usher ..... James Cippera
Belladonna, colored nurse.....
..... Byron Cogan
The guests included Miss Shumanheick, a college chum, who sang "I Love You Truly"—Isaac Myers; Miss Knowall, the village gossip—Lewis Myers; Miss Millie Sobbs, jilted sweetheart of the groom—Clarence Brant; The Goldstein brothers—Lowell Myers and Howard Wray; also Miss Walcott, played by Jesse Green.
It caused a continual laugh and was much enjoyed.

Iowa City Press-Citizen
12 Mar 1926, Fri Page 14

NORTH LIBERTY BAND

—PRESENTS—

"THE WOMANLESS WEDDING"

—AT—

NORTH LIBERTY SCHOOL HALL

MARCH 16-17—8:00 P. M.

ADMISSION—20c-40c

"THE WOMANLESS WEDDING"

North Liberty Band Boys

THURSDAY, MAY 20

8:00 P. M.

Auspices Seventh Division
W. M. B. Christian Church

ICE CREAM SOCIAL

Admission 40c      Children 20c

NORTH LIBERTY BAND PRESENTS "LAUGH" PLAY

Members of the North Liberty band last night presented a "Womanless Wedding" at a benefit performance for the band. A large house greeted the cast which presented the production and laughs were the order of the evening. The play will again be presented at North Liberty tonight and the production warrants the interest which has been exhibited in it.

CROWD ENJOYS PLAY BY BAND

'Womanless Wedding' Gets Big Reception By Tiffin
Audience

TIFFIN, May 11—A packed house greeted the "Womanless Wedding" put on here by the North Liberty band members Tuesday evening, each and every one deserving honorable applause and mention. A Flapper playlet comparing our girls of today with those of 1880 was given by Mrs. Dale Anderson which brought encore after encore.

Miss Ceola Myers gave several piano selections. Following the program a delicious luncheon was served by the Ladies Aid of Tiffin. The final result is a neat addition to the treasury. The following took part in the play: Logan, Myers, Mart Stoner, R. K. Price, Dan Overholt, Edward Myers, George Young, Lloyd Myers, L. L. Lentz, J. Musgrave, Purl Sentman, W. Stoner, Ervin Lininger, Lou Langhurst, Grant Horn, Lou Kadlec, Joe Alt, Robert Lininger, Charles Reasland, Elmer Brant, Dale Anderson, James Cipera, Byron Cogan, Isaac Myers, Lewis Myers, Clarence Brant, Lowell Myers, Howard Wray, Jesse Green.